

The start of strong connections

Discover the leader within

AG Bell is thrilled to introduce our new Leadership Experience and Adventure Program (LEAP) for high school students who are deaf and hard of hearing! This fun online program will help teens gain confidence in virtual environments, develop stronger leadership skills, and connect them with new friends from across the globe.

Successful digital leaders who are deaf and hard of hearing will guide teens through fun activities that will prepare them for the challenges and opportunities ahead.

Session Information

Teens have the opportunity of attending one of three sessions from the comfort of their own home! There is still time to apply for next 2 sessions!

- Session 2: July 16-17, 2021 | Friday, 7pm-9pm EST; Saturday, 11am-2:30pm EST
- Session 3: September 17-18, 2021 | Friday, 7pm-9pm EST; Saturday, 1pm-4:30pm EST

Sample Schedule

Friday Evening:

- Icebreaker and Introduction to LEAP
- Special Topic: Making Life Accessible to the Fullest!
- Small Group Adventure: Leadership Activity
- Leadership Experience

Saturday Morning to Early Afternoon:

- Special Topic: How to Keep Your Balance and Bounce Back from Anything
- Small Group Adventure: Inventing Something that Really Works!
- Large Group: Showing Off your Small Group Adventure
- Leadership Activity: Wrap-Up and Jump Off into Virtual Community

Additional details will be provided to teens who are accepted into the program!

Fees

AG Bell is pleased to offer LEAP free of charge thanks to the Johnson Scholarship Foundation and the generous donations from our sponsors.

Application Deadline

Applications will be accepted until September 3, 2021. Space is limited to 50 teens per session, so we encourage teens to apply as soon as possible!

Scan code below to visit our website and learn more!

